

Kanata ~ Nepean

February, 2012

To all KNBC members and potential members:

Welcome to all returning members and those joining for the first time!

If you are new to the club, you are probably interested in knowing that KNBC is a volunteer-based, non-profit organization for recreational bicycle touring. We usually, but not always, run day tours from starting points in the western part of Ottawa and tour areas west of the city. Several times a year we organize weekend tours based in areas that are an easy drive from the city. The club emphasizes the social, recreational, adventurous, and fitness aspects of cycling.

In order to join the Kanata-Nepean Bicycle Club (KNBC) you will need to:

- download and print the club application form and the Canadian Cycling Association (CCA) waiver which are both in the same .pdf document;
- fill them out and sign both;
- send them, along with the membership fee (see below) to the KNBC membership director at 60 Carmichael Court, Kanata, ON, K2K 1K2.

Regular membership fees are $40 for an individual and $35 for each additional family member living at the same address. This includes liability insurance arranged through the Ontario Cycling Association (OCA) and the CCA. There is one waiver form to fill out for the CCA and one registration form for the KNBC.

Again this year, KNBC does not have to pay for insurance for members who are also members of other CCA- or OCA-affiliated clubs, as they already have insurance with the OCA/CCA. Members in this position need to send us proof of membership in another club. For example, this proof can be your 2012 Ottawa Bicycle Club membership number or a photocopy of your membership card. Your fees will then be reduced to $20 and $15 for additional family members who are also members of another club.

Note: There is a box at the bottom of the CCA waiver form to be checked if you don't want CCA or OCA to distribute your name and contact information to other companies or organizations. As an insured member of the KNBC, OCA will have access to your address but will not distribute it if you check the box.

If you have any questions, please send an e-mail to me at sparling@sympatico.ca or phone me at 613-839-1594.
